Who Can Attend: Definition of Qualified Practitioners

The term, “Qualified Practitioners” refers to practitioners who are allowed to attend QRA<sup>SM</sup> Quantum Reflex Analysis Seminars given by (New Millennium Living Limited) NMLL in which the practitioners are taught the QRA<sup>SM</sup> technique and where they may receive the QRA<sup>SM</sup> Program methods.

Specifically, “Qualified Practitioners” shall refer to practitioners and/or who have a health-related practice and/or who hold a valid license/certification in one of the healing arts or who had a valid license/certification that has lapsed.

Practitioners considered to have a valid license/certification are: MD (Medical Doctor), DC (Doctor of Chiropractic), OMD (Oriental Medical Doctor), DO (Doctor of Osteopathy), DDS (Doctor of Dental Surgery), LAc (Licensed Acupuncturist), ND (Doctor of Naturopathy), RPh (Registered Pharmacist), OD (Doctor of Optometry), PhD (Doctor of Philosophy) and other certifications which have been approved by QRC (The Quantum Research Counsel).

Other practitioners that may attend QRA<sup>SM</sup> Seminars given by NMLL are those with a health-related degree or certification, such as: RN (Registered Nurse), LMT (Licensed Massage therapist) or other health-related certifications as approved by NMLL and QRC. The staff members of practitioners (who have previously attended QRA<sup>SM</sup> Seminars) may attend a QRA<sup>SM</sup> Seminar and receive the QRA<sup>SM</sup> Program or Students enrolled in health-related courses at a valid institution (eg. those enrolled in medical school or chiropractic college) may also attend QRA<sup>SM</sup> Seminars and receive the QRA<sup>SM</sup> Program.
